HIGH-END HIGH-DESIGN WORLDWIDE

Interior Lifestyle

Tokyo 2018

Interior Lifestyle Tokyo is an international trade fair that showcases lifestyle concepts in interior design markets from around the world. A wide range of buyers including interior shops visit this fair to find a variety of products related to the entire living space, from high-design jewellery and kitchen tools to food and high-end furniture. A further advantage of exhibiting at this fair is that many exhibitors and visitors come from around the world.

3 Advantages of exhibiting

1

High sensitivity towards design

Visitors and exhibitors alike are highly sensitive towards design, and appreciate the history and premium product quality that can be found at this fair. Not only are there domestic and overseas buyers from fashion-forward shops and design houses, but members of the design media too. Also Interior Lifestyle Tokyo's seminars attract prominent buyers.

Creating a borderless market

Interior Lifestyle Tokyo features numerous products that are classified under high design and lifestyle. It is a place where exhibitors can connect with these buyers which they have never previously considered, and allows them to open up new sales channels for their business.

3

A window to the global market

With the Messe Frankfurt's headquarters in Germany and with numerous branches scattered globally, Interior Lifestyle Tokyo has the backing of a strong worldwide network. The trade fair provides an ideal opportunity for export-minded exhibitors.

Zoning guide

This fair is composed of 11 zones and an 'Atrium special zone' which changes its theme every year. Exhibit in the most suitable zone for maximum business exposure.

HOME

Design concepts for new living spaces

New ideas and inspirations for lifestyle design concepts gather here, with a wide range of items such as furniture, lights, textiles and interior greenery.

Exhibits in 2017 include:
Furniture, home textiles, lights, garden furniture and interior greenery, and more

ACCENT

A new accents to living

This zone is for a broad variety of products such as design items, gifts, art & objects, fragrances, garments, baby and children's goods, stationery, digital gadgets and more. New categories are also welcomed.

Exhibits in 2017 include:
Apparel, aromatherapy items, decorative candles, designer stationery, educational toys, art panels, and more

EVERYDAY

Accessories for more comfortable living

This zone is dedicated to items that facilitate convenience in everyday life. Many flock to this area for attractive storage products, cleaning tools, homeware products and household appliances.

Exhibits in 2017 include:
Laundry care, storage items, towels, bath and toiletry products, household appliances, and more

KITCHEN LIFE

New items to add flavour to the kitchen and dining table

This zone understands that the kitchen and dining areas are at the heart of most homes. As such, the latest kitchenware and dishware are displayed here. Cooking tool demonstrations are encouraged as a way to engage potential business partners.

Exhibits in 2017 include:
Multifunctional pots, branded dishware, kitchenware, designer appliances, lifestyle foods, and more

GLOBAL

A showcase for overseas manufacturers

Here, buyers can meet a high quality range of lifestyle products from all over the world. This is one of the key strengths of Interior Lifestyle Tokyo. Such emerging design countries as Tunisia, Lithuania and Taiwan, were also exhibited.

Business support desk
The organiser will set up a business support desk on site to offer quick interpretation services, advice on small-lot imports and assistance with business negotiations for free.

Atrium special zone

Exhibits are specially screened.

"For Here or To Go?"

The theme of this year's Atrium special zone is "For Here or To Go?", – a familiar phrase heard at coffee stands and fast food shops. This highlight will provide buyers with an environment to either buy at the venue (For Here) or take the purchase back to the company (To Go). Mr. Yamada, an experienced buyer in the design market, will create a new form of trade fair negotiations through this zone.

Atrium director

Yu Yamada

After working as a buyer for IDEE SHOP in Minami-Aoyama, Mr. Yamada founded method in 2007 and began working as a freelance buyer shortly afterwards. He is currently a representative director of method, inc. In September 2014, he released the book "THE METHOD OF SHOP SUCCESS" published by SEIBUNDO SHINKOSHA.

Trade visitors' interest (multiple answers)

For promotion Effective strategies for added success!

The power of trade fairs is the ability to gather large pools of prospects from all over the world to convene in one place over a few days. We encourage exhibitors to set clear targets of what they hope to achieve during the trade fair to maximise positive results.

Examples: Receive orders at least USD/EUR○○. Develop new prospects at least ○○contacts.

1 Send invitations to your prospects

Every year, half of all visitors indicated that their attendance at the fair was prompted by personalised invitations from exhibitors.

Free admission tickets and stickers will be sent upon your request. Send more free admission tickets to your customers.

*No shipping fee

2 Business support desk

The organiser will set up a business support desk onsite to offer efficient interpretation services, general advice and assistance for international negotiations at no additional charge.

3 Welcoming booth design

Be sure to maximise space when designing your booth to ensure visitors' comfort. Have a table available to encourage visitors to sit and have extended discussions.

If you are looking for easy way to arrange your booth, economical and convenient rental stands are available upon request.
